RE: Public Service Commission of South Carolina – Administrative and Procedural Issues
Docket No. 2005-83-A

Dear Mr. Stark:

Thank you for your email dated September 8, 2020, requesting written comments on the proposed procedural schedule for the future electric fuel proceedings of Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. (“DESC” or “Company”) in 2021 and 2022 as well as the future purchased gas adjustment proceedings for the Company in 2021 and 2022. Below are DESC’s comments on the proposed procedural schedule for these proceedings.

DESC’s Annual Electric Fuel Proceeding

On August 17, 2020, the Public Service Commission of South Carolina issued its Notice of Hearing and Prefile Testimony Deadlines for Docket No. 2021-2-E styled as “Annual Review of Base Rates for Fuel Costs for Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. (For Potential Increase or Decrease in Fuel Adjustment Clause/Costs and Rates).” In this proceeding, the deadline for DESC’s prefiled direct testimony is February 9, 2021;¹ however, in Column K of the spreadsheet entitled “Proposed Schedules for Stakeholders”, it appears that February 23, 2021, is the proposed deadline for DESC’s prefiled direct testimony. If DESC is interpreting Column K correctly, then the Company has no objection to this proposed change to the existing procedural schedule for its 2021 electric fuel proceeding.

As for the proposed schedule for DESC's 2022 annual electric fuel proceeding, Column K again appears to suggest a prefiled direct testimony deadline for DESC of February 22, 2020. If DESC is interpreting Column K correctly, then the Company has no objection to the proposed procedural schedule for its 2022 electric fuel proceeding.

DESC's Annual Review of Purchased Gas Adjustment and Gas Purchasing Policies ("PGA Proceeding")

The Company has reviewed the proposed procedural schedule for its 2021 and 2022 annual PGA Proceeding and does not have any objection to the proposed procedural schedule.

Thank you again for the opportunity to provide the Commission with the Company's comments. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

K. Chad Burgess
